MAUI WANTS
TO LAUGH

Years For a Circus or
"Sich."

EVEN A BEAR WOULD DO

Wailuku Bemoans the Lack of Amusement--News of the Little Island.

WAILUKU, Maui, August 18.—The News says: Some sort of amusement or recreation is an absolute need of every healthy individual and community. Even the wandering bear and trained dog satisfy a certain well defined need in the human mind and heart, if nothing more entertaining presents itself. A circus, a panorama or even a ragtime minstrel troupe brings a species of irrigation to the mental tap roots of the isolated community, which inclines to wither without some such awakening occasionally.
The young men of Wailuku should take advantage of this need for amusement, and improvise theatricals, dances, picnics and whatever else will occasionally turn the minds of the people into new channels for a few hours.

CHINESE MISSION SCHOOL.
A school for Chinese Mission children in Wailuku will be an excellent thing, abounding in mental and spiritual fruit sweet to the taste. But it would be a sublimely stupid thing to establish such a school in the site now proposed, near the junction of Market and Main streets, just across from a whiskey house, and not very far from where in the natural course of events in a few years, the Wailuku Railroad depot will have to be established, and worst still, on the principal business street of the town. Establish the Mission school permanently, by all means, but please don't put it near the corner of Main and Market. There are better and more appropriate places in Wailuku for it.

WANT PICTURES "SOON."
There is a first class opening at Wailuku for a skillful photographer. A shrewd Yankee with plenty of snap, no pun intended,—could locate at Wailuku and build up a fine business. There has been a gallery here until recently when it was given up by the operator on account of the weight of years, thus leaving an excellent chance for a first class operator.

TAKE YOUR HOLIDAY.
If we might offer a word of advice to the young men of Honolulu who hold clerical positions in business houses, we would suggest that if by any possible means they can get a vacation, they should avail themselves of it at once, for the simple reason that there is a rush of business soon coming to the Islands that will severely tax their strength for the next few months.
Even the burly-burly of an election is not going to stay the tide of business whose crest is even now sighted in the offing.

LABOR SCARCITY.
The "traveling mania," which has taken hold of the Japanese laborers at Spreckelsville still seems to hold its own, very many of the Japanese leaving the plantation by every steamer for Honolulu and not a few for the Coast. Grinding is still going on, but not nearly as actively as it might be, owing to the scarcity of labor. Last week, notwithstanding the shortage of laborers, the mills were kept going in full operation both night and day, this being one of the most successful weeks since the big strike. Planting is being pushed forward as rapidly as can be expected under the circumstances.

The Hilo papers are complaining, and justly too, that there is not proper expedition shown in the matter of forwarding the mails from Honolulu, and that the same dilatory method marks the entire route of the mails. We respectfully invite the attention of the U. S. Inspector now on Maui to certain little irregularities in the matter of handling the mails between Wailuku and the several seaports from which we receive our mails. Of course there were bound to be some hitches in changing the postal system, but those troubles are about over, and now we have a right to expect a more rapid and systematic handling of the mails than has prevailed for the last few months.

VISITING SPRECKELSVILLE.
Messrs. Husted and Grimwood were guests of Manager Lowrie at his Spreckelsville residence, for several days. Mr. Grimwood is the representative of the large machinery firm of Grimwood and Richardson. Both gentlemen have been all through the mills and over the large plantation and express much delight and pleasure with their visit. On Friday, they left for Lahaina.

SCHOOL AGENT MCKAY.
The selection of W. A. McKay as school agent for the Wailuku district was a wise one. A number of the school buildings in his district are in serious need of repairs, and there is no doubt but that he will have them put in proper order. The school at Wailuku especially is in a disgraceful condition, and he has already accepted bids for having it properly repaired.
Let the good work go on.

PAIA NOTES.
Paia plantation mill shut down last Saturday for the season, with a record of nearly 8,000 tons. The record given for the benefit of the Paia Church on Saturday was quite a success, artificially and financially. Mr. S. Kamakahi and Mrs. Saffery and Misses Rogers, Pihl and Kekipi, and the Sunday School furnished the music. Another entertainment will be given at the same place for the same purpose on Friday, August 17. Mr. W. G. Scott was married to Miss Virginia Freitas at Paia last Sunday at noon, Rev. E. G.
Beckwith performing the ceremony.

Mr. Cyrus Green was "best man" and Miss Ida Freitas was bridesmaid.

SMALL THINGS.
Mr. Frank Damon and Rev. J. W.
Russell left Maui for Hawaii on the Kinohiwa on Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagenkamp of Kaunakakai are the guests of Mrs. E. K. Vander Nallen at her residence in Spreckelsville.

The launch Talulah, formerly of the Maunalei plantation, will arrive at Kahululu to-morrow to be used as a harbor boat pending the completion of the steam tug.

The steep ascent from the Iao bridge to upper Market street has been lowered materially and a six inch gravel road bed will be laid the entire length of the street.

EVANGELIST PROSTRATED.

J. Leslie McComb Threatened With a Serious Illness.

At the gospel temperance entertainment held at the Joyful News Mission Saturday evening a large audience was present. The program was well selected, the Kamehameha School Glee Club and Prof. Kaa's mandolin orchestra being especially appreciated. Mr. Mc-Comb gave a stirring talk on temperance and as a result founded a new league for Honolulu, called the Blue Ribbon Temperance League. Fifteen young men signed the pledge and donned the blue ribbon.

It is said that nearly $200 were netted as the result of the sale of tickets and program advertising. Mr. McComb announces that as the result of his physician's advice the regular evening meetings of the Joyful News Mission will be discontinued. He is threatened with nervous prostration. The blue ribbon entertainments, however, will be given every Saturday night. Mr. Mc-Comb regrets that his health has become impaired by his constant labors as an evangelist.

THE CURFEW LAW
IS BADLY NEEDED

Young Girls Throng Hotel
Street Saturday
Night.

That a strictly enforced curfew law is needed in Honolulu for the protection of young boys and girls, especially the Hawaiians, who are allowed to roam about the streets at nightfall without the guardianship of parents or grown persons, is becoming more and more apparent. Attempts have been made to create such a law but if there is one on the ordinance books of the city it is not enforced. The claim for a curfew law is especially noticeable on Saturday nights when the business streets are teeming with people, and when many of the rougher element are out in large numbers, particularly on Hotel street between Fort and Nuuanu streets, near the New England bakery.

In the vicinity of the saloons it has been observed that groups of young boys and girls congregate. At 11 o'clock last Saturday night there were counted thirty-four young Hawaiian girls, gaily dressed, few of them over sixteen years of age, who were idling about near these saloons, standing in the clear-room of a restaurant, conversing freely with men of all ages and races, jumping in and out of hacks and taking occasional rides to resorts of questionable reputation.

Probably very few of the girls were chaperoned by their mothers at the time, although a few of them were daughters of lei women. The street was filled with half-drunken men, reeling about and directing remarks at the girls. The condition along Hotel street on Saturday nights is reminiscent of many phases of the Bowery and is causing many people to refrain from venturing on it after nightfall. The young girls thus exposed to all kinds of temptation should be kept off the streets, and a curfew law will certainly help on the desired effect.

CAPITAL SOON TO FLOW TO ISLANDS

B. F. Dillingham Back From the Mainland
Says so.

"So far as Olan Plantation is concerned I have made financial arrangements by which I do not believe we will have to call for any more assessments on the stock for a good many months to come." So states B. F. Dillingham who returned to Honolulu Saturday after an extended stay on the Mainland.
Mr. Dillingham went to San Francisco just before the plague visited Honolulu last December and since then he has traveled extensively. He was in New York for sometime. Further than making a general statement of his travels Mr. Dillingham was loth to talk to an advertiser representative yesterday.
"I merely went away for a vacation," continued Mr. Dillingham. "At the same time I interested myself in creating a moneyed interest in the Islands and believe capital will soon flow in.
I am sure a great deal of money is coming here. It is my belief that money will be easy here within a few months, and people will within the next year be hunting four per cent investments.
I do not intend to try and place any Olan bonds here. I can secure all the money we need on them in San Francisco, but it is possible New York will be our field for placing the entire issue."

It is believed by Mr. Dillingham that about $500,000 will be sent into the country on the Olan bonds flotation.
This influx of money means that investors in Olan shares will be relieved from paying assessments on the stock with such regularity as in the past and that the plantation itself will be placed on a cash basis which will give it an opportunity for developing its vast acreage.

Captain W. G. Goodman, formerly of the Robert Lewers, is to become port captain for Alexander & Baldwin at San Francisco. Captain Johnson takes the Robert Lewers.

STATEMENT ON THE
LAUPAHOEHOE ROW

Communication On Subject
From Deputy Sheriff
Swaine.

HILO, Hawaii, August 17.—The Herald prints the following communication:

Mr. Editor: Sir—Please allow me to make a correction of your statement of the "Laupahoehoe Trouble."

The facts of the case are these: The Japs have been very surly and wanted impossibilities granted them. The manager of the plantation (L. S. C.), C.
McLennan, gave them the ultimatum of either going to work or to leave the camp and plantation premises and to go away. They had agreed to go to work on Monday when the trouble occurred. Mr. Shore, the head overseer, went up to the camp to see if they had gone to work, and when he got there they refused to work and immediately after assaulted him with hoes, clubs and cane knives, inflicting some very nasty wounds upon his body, and he then escaping got out of the house and notified the manager of what had happened. The manager then telephoned to me and I went up to the scene and saw in a posse, surrounded the premises and took some twenty odd men into custody and brought them to Laupahoehoe jail. On the following day I arrested nine more men implicated in the assault upon Mr. Shore.

On Wednesday we tried them in court with the following result: Twenty-four convictions out of thirty arrests as follows: The ringleaders were sentenced to eighteen months hard labor, of whom there were two, one for one year, one for nine months, five $50 each, one $25 and the rest $10 each.
On the following Friday a general strike on the plantation took place which fortunately ended without any serious consequences, as the strikers were told to either leave the plantation premises or go to work. They all went to work, thereby ending the strike.

I am pleased to say that at present there are no appearances of any dissatisfaction and everything has again quieted down to the general routine.
Hoping you will find space in your paper for the above, I remain yours respectfully,

L. E. SWAINE,
Deputy Sheriff North Hilo, Laupahoehoe, August 13, 1900.
